PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Full Stack Web Developer with 8+ years of commercial experience building web products for agencies, startups, and established businesses. Current focus is the JavaScript ecosystem end to end: React, Next.js, TypeScript, and GraphQL on the frontend; Node.js and NestJS on the backend.

Contributed to the delivery of 400+ websites, e-commerce platforms, dashboards, and custom business solutions — from architecture and integrations to deployment and long-term support. A background in business and design brings a product-minded approach focused on maintainable code and real business value.

AI-assisted development is part of the daily workflow, used to speed up implementation, refactoring, code review, and documentation while keeping ownership of architecture and code quality. Comfortable in remote, distributed, and asynchronous teams.
